

NEW YORK

20 Feb. 1951

Dear Allen:

Herrnstein is C.V. of my eldest boy, Richard, now a resident of California. In addition to what appears on the attached, I can only say - even though I may be prejudiced - that he is a conscientious young man of considerable personal charm who gets on with people including foreigners. He is not an intellectual giant but neither is he a dumbbell;

● he has plenty of guts and is full of integrity and, I would guess, of discretion.

He might easily be gnat for your mill.

Undoubtedly he is foolish, from a material point of view, to leave the almost ideal set-up he now has. But far be it from me to discourage high purpose, under present circumstances

It was good to see you. STAT
